

PREVIEW_ Bitte Kempe Björkman - Interview (Mallorca 2017) 1

Bitte Kempe Björkman: I've constantly been searching for the right thing to do to find my place in the community. I'm not the lady that should be on the barricades talking about science and studies. I recently discovered that I should be a channel for others.

Dr. Andreas Eenfeldt: So tell me how.

Bitte Kempe Björkman: I met Hanna Boetius, my colleague and partner in crime in this event, we went on the low-carb cruise in Caribbean in 2015 and then we went the year after and then we sat and thought, "What are we doing here? Why aren't these guys coming over to Europe?"
